PIVOTAL TIME CHANGE

We're continuing through Bishop Barron's Pivotal Players series at 4:15 PM (not at 1:00) this Sunday. This week the movie and discussion will be about G.K. Chesterton: the great English journalist and incidentally one of Fr. Stitt's favorite authors. As usual we'll be at the Champlain Catholic Men's Club. Coffee and a light snack will be provided. Even if you couldn't make it to the other sessions, you're still welcome to join Fr. Stitt and the folks from Champlain and Rouses Point. FYI Next week the final presentation on Michelangelo will be back at the normal 1:00pm time.

EASTER MAILING... you should have received your Easter mailing brochure which includes the liturgies throughout Holy Week along with your Easter and Flower envelopes. Please plan on making HOLY WEEK 2017 very special for yourself. If you have not participated in these Liturgical Celebrations in the past, plan on doing so this year.

EASTER FLOWERS/MEMORIALS

You may contribute in memory of loved ones by printing their names CLEARLY on the back of the Easter Flower envelope which you have received in a separate mailing. If you did not receive the mailing but wish to contribute, you may also use a plain envelope.

DIVINE MERCY: Special Mass of Healing

On Sunday, April 23, 2017, Bishop Terry R. LaValley will preside at a special Mass of Healing for those hurt by the Church in any way, at St. Mary's Cathedral in Ogdensburg at 3:00 pm. This celebration on Divine Mercy Sunday is a fitting means of acknowledging the pain caused by some pastoral leaders or workers in the Church and to apologize for the conduct that caused such grief. The entire diocesan family, clergy, religious, and laity, are invited to participate in this Eucharistic celebration to continue to ask God's help for healing and reconciliation. This time of prayer is also an expression of continued support for those seeking to rebuild their lives amidst such anguish.
