

3rd SUNDAY OF EASTER

APRIL 30, 2017

Two disciples bound for Emmaus were joined by Jesus, whom they did not recognize. They discussed the death of Jesus and the disappearance of his body from the tomb. Jesus explained to them through the Scriptures the meaning of the events that had taken place. They recognized him in the breaking of bread.

THANK YOU!

We are extremely appreciative of everyone's generosity to the parish. Thank you for your support and kindness. We certainly appreciate the sacrifices that you make to St. Mary's. Also, thank you to all who make up their weekly envelopes and to those that gave to the Easter envelope last weekend.

CHURCH CLEANING UPDATE....due to circumstances beyond our control, the cleaning company has not yet been able to get back to finish the interior cleaning of the church. However, a projected date of the week of May 7th is being considered. We anticipate no daily masses or services during that week, so that there will be less interruptions for them. We will keep you posted!

EASTER FLOWER MEMORIALS

Additional names are added to the Flower Memorials: Joseph Tony Fillion, Connie & Jim Wells by Eleanor Fillion. There are still extra Memorial Bulletin copies available on the radiator covers. Thanks to all who contributed to the beautiful decorations.

WELCOME....a very warm welcome to all parishioners, friends, and visitors with us this Weekend!

RESISTING HAPPINESS - POT LUCK DINNER ... On Tuesday, May 2 at 5:30PM in St. Patrick's Parish Center, we will have a potluck dinner where everyone can bring a dish to share and get together to discuss Matthew Kelly's book Resisting Happiness. Please call Fr. Stitt at the Rectory (297-7361) or email him at stittamdg@gmail.com to let us know that you are coming and if you can bring a dish. There are still a few copies of the book available in the back of the church on the tables. Please make sure that you and your friends and family each take a copy and join us on the 2nd.
